28 Members of Space Travelers Reading Club Earn Certificates

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-6438

The Bert Mosleys of Ward St. and their house guest, Max Will of Germany, are having pre-school fun with a vacation in Sequoia and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Riggs of Park St. have returned after a week in Cherry Valley.

Certificates have been given to the first 28 entrants of the Space Travelers Reading Club at Walteria Library during the past week. There were approximately 72 members in this club, but because of vacations and other summer activities, some of them were unable to complete the required five book reports. Quite a number of ambitious kiddies, though, have attained the mark of receiving two certificates. This has been one of the most successful reading projects in the history of our local library.

Labor Day will be just that for the faithful members of the Walteria Baptist Church. They have organized a get-together with potluck luncheon and paint brushes, and the whole family is going to join in on working on the new church building.

Art Laury of Cricklewood was happily surprised last week when he was honored at a beach party attended by 15 of his friends. After romping on the beach and splashing in the water, the whole gang went to the Jack Clarke's residence on Piccain Way for the birthday cake and ice cream.

Farewells are still in line here in Walteria. This time there are two families greatly missed on Danaha St. The first to leave were the Don Dahls, who followed that old moving van away on last Friday. They are making their home in Tulunga. Before leaving, Janey Dahl was given a surprise farewell brunch in the lovely patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jo Merrill. Those gathering 'round the laden table to munch coffee cake and drink coffee were Eleanor Manis, Carol Wyatt, Bea Sylvia Fitzpatrick, Betty Mitchell, Rita Lamperth, Frankie Johnson, Martha Munn, Colleen Tucker, hostess Marge, and, of course, the surprised honoree, Jane. A lovely goodbye gift of dainty sweaters was presented to the departing Jane, along with many wishes for happiness in their new residence.

Next to leave were the Willard (Buff) Bowens, who left bag and baggage via another moving van for Wisconsin where they plan to take up permanent residence. Eva Bowen was also honored with a farewell party, this one in the form of a handkerchief shower given at the home of Mrs. Gloria DeCaro. The shower luncheon was enjoyed by guests Peggy Gehres, Bea Monaghan, Jan Ellis, Melba on the top. The entire cake was banked with chrysanthemums to form the centerpiece of the luncheon table.

Mrs. Eleanor Manis had a pleasant surprise Thursday when she entered Torrance Memorial Hospital for surgery. All ready to undergo her ordeal, she was stopped practically at the operating room door—the hospital staff almost as surprised as she was. Seems last-minute tests indicated that surgery wasn't necessary after all, so Eleanor came back home. Her bouquet, which was sent to the hospital by neighbors as a get-well wish, became a "welcome-home" gift, and everyone was happy about the whole thing.
